Meals and accommodations are also simple and the vegetarian/vegan food served is for the sole purpose of nourishment. There is also a small café onsite. Kagyu Samye Ling: Five Golden Rules

To show respect for ourselves and others and to protect Samye Ling as a sacred space, Abbot, Lama Yeshe Rinpoche requests all who visit and stay here to follow these rules:

1. To protect life and refrain from killing.
2. To respect other's property and refrain from stealing.
3. To speak the truth and refrain from lying.
4. To embrace health and refrain from intoxicants.
5. To respect others and refrain from sexual misconduct.

By keeping these Five Golden Rules we aim to keep Kagyu Samye Ling a pure and special place and an example for ourselves and others, now and in the future.

May all beings benefit and be happy. - Lama Yeshe Losal Rinpoche - Chairman of Rokpa Trust

Please go to Kagyu Samye Ling's website for further details and/or travel directions. Trains leave regularly from Euston station, if traveling from London. Taxi shares suggested from Carlisle for ease of travel and more train options. Lockerbie is closer but requires a train change but it is a shorter taxi journey. Taxi journey from Carlisle to Samye Ling is approximately 1 hour. Most students coordinate their taxi journey from Carlisle or Lockerbie closer to the time of retreat. You can connect with others and organize shares, etc through a fb retreat/event page that I have created: https://www.facebook.com/events/1445642135555880/?active_tab=about
